2013 IOWA STATE CHAMPIONS

Sheila Brody and Kristy Klejch

Kristy Klejch of Creston is the 2013 Iowa State Women's Champion. This is the second Women's State Championship for Kristy, who was the State Champion in 1997. Sheila Brody of Cedar Rapids placed 2nd in just her second year of competition in the Championship class.

Joe Smith and Dave Mittlestadt

Dave Mittlestadt of Jewell is the 2013 Iowa State Men's Champion, defeating Joe Smith of Gladbrook in a playoff game after they were tied at the end of round robin play. This is Dave's first Championship title. Vern Kollasch of Iowa City, the defending State Champion, finished third.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Horseshoe pitching has brought me many very pleasant memories. Each year when we go to the World Tournament, we reconnect with old friends we have not seen in a while and meet new ones. This year in St. George, Utah, was no different than before.

At this year's annual delegates meeting (myself, Ralph Davis, and Deb Davis) heard a gentleman mention that he has been going to many tournaments and was present to witness the greatest horseshoe game ever played between Glen "Red" Henton and Ray Martin. It is nice to know it will never be forgotten.

Many of the pitchers from Iowa that made the trip to Utah also went to several of the national parks there and were treated to some beautiful scenery. The weather was VERY hot. One day the temperature reached 115 degrees.

The Iowa State Fair just completed and crowned State Champions in eleven divisions. Congratulations to all that competed. We had beautiful weather for all of the competition. Many thanks should go out to Danny Sease and his staff for contributing to this year's success.

I learned about this horseshoe story at my wife's high school reunion. Years ago, there was a Grandfather who liked to pitch horseshoes. So he would end up every Saturday taking his little granddaughter, Donna, with him to the park to pitch. Continued Page 3

But Donna didn't see the fun in this sport that her grandfather enjoyed so much. Little Donna Belle Mullenger had some bigger things in her future. For you see when she got a older, this little girl went on to win beauty contests. I am sure you know her as Donna Reed, the movie actress from Denison, Iowa, who we watch in the annual Christmas classic, "It's a Wonderful Life."

Let's all have a Wonderful Life pitching shoes. See you on the courts.

Clark finds niche with horseshoes

By Jeff Hare, correspondent

Sports like baseball and soccer are the norm for most 6- and 7-year-olds exploring the world of athletics.

Malcom Clark of Monticello has done that. But he also decided he wanted to play another game — horseshoe pitching.

And at his young age, he may have found his niche.

“His father learned to pitch horseshoes from perhaps the greatest horseshoe player in the world, Red Henton of Maquoketa,” said Malcom’s mother, Buffy Clark. “About a year ago, Malcom started playing with his dad and really liked it.”

Malcom Clark, now 7, has won numerous tournaments, many against adult competition. He usually is the only youngster in the competition.

“In horseshoes, competitors are usually broken down by ringer percentage, not age,” his mother said. “Malcom averages about 40 percent and has had a high of over 60 at a recent event in Cedar Rapids.”

At the Iowa State Fair, which is the only tournament that separates classes by age, Malcom won the State Junior Cadet division.

Clark pitches shoes for about an hour every day. His 9-year-old brother, Tristen, also throws shoes, but not nearly as often, according to his mother.

“Depending on how far you want to travel, there are tournaments three out of four weekends a month,” Buffy Clark said. “During the winter, there are indoor events in El-dora, which we also try to get to.”

The family is unsure how long this passion will last.

“It’s hard to tell what will happen,” Buffy said. “Right now, he loves it and wants to continue, but you never know. We will cross that bridge when we come to it.”
