HORSESHOE PITCHING BACK IN MOULTON

I was contacted about redoing some old courts in the downtown Moulton area. Only thing left was the concrete pitching platform for two courts. I went down in June and looked at the site with Terry from town. Two platforms had to be moved closer to the side, stakes set, and new backboards. Sand was used for the pits.

Moulton Jamboree Days were held on September 7, 8 and 9, and the courts were ready. They did an excellent job on them. The courts are located on Main Street, downtown by the Library and the water tower. Moulton is South of Highway 2 on Highway 202, between Centerville and Bloomfield.

Ira Hartwick of Bloomfield, his wife, Kathy, and brother, Jerry Hartwick from Ankeny, ran the tournaments. They had doubles and single tournaments all three days, starting at 4:00 each day. There were around 12 pitchers per pitch. It was a real success. The money went to help the Library in town. Trophies were presented to the winners.

I went down with David Brent on Thursday and Saturday to help and to pitch. The locals were happy that horseshoe pitching was back in town. Good Job!

West Des Moines Courts Update

If you haven't heard, Springtime we will be seeing some improvements at the courts. The City will be installing fencing that will be higher on each side of the Walkway separating the North and South courts.

Lighting improvements are in the plans also. A new shelter will be erected in the vicinity of the courts replacing the one that sits up on the hill to the North.

I have talked to the City about Parking improvements, but have not heard back from them. The request has been passed on to the powers-that-be. I feel that the ground to the East or West of the courts would be an ideal spot for more parking.
