Last September Larry Bolt of Traer was diagnosed with B Cell Lymphoma and had 6 sessions of chemo. His cancer is now in remission and he has been pitching a few shoes in Texas. The doctors will be running more tests in Iowa the end of March

Marvin Engstler is scheduled to have heart valve replacement surgery at St. Mary's in Rochester. He will be in Rochester the week of May 1st for appointments followed by surgery on the 3rd. He is apprehensive but doing well. The doctor's feel he should be able to participate in horseshoes after surgery. He is ready to get back to pitching horseshoes and seeing all of his friends. You can e-mail his daughter, Mary Hanna, at dhanna@wctatel.net or send Marvin a note at 2615 Hwy 69 Garner, IA 50438.  Thank you for your continued thoughts and prayers and kind words of encouragement. Dad is very appreciative. I have been printing and sharing with Dad the emails that are sent. Mary Hanna

Many of you may have suspected your new co-editors are not right in the head. It has now been confirmed. Shirley has either a dead or paralyzed 6th cranial nerve, and Chris has 4th nerve palsy. These may have been caused by a virus, tumor, stroke or injury. Shirley has double vision when looking up & to the right. Chris has double vision looking straight ahead and has a MRI scheduled. Chris claims having 2 stakes to shoot for is not helpful for her game! She also recently underwent cataract surgery, lost a dear aunt, uncle and 1st cousin. Shirley still has a bum shoulder and has only thrown 4 shoes all winter. In addition her computer has been in the hospital for a Windows 10 reset which wiped out her other programs. Chris just replaced her 10 year old Mac and is facing a learning curve. Hopefully we will no longer be operating under Murphy's Law. Thank goodness we have Deb Davis as a valuable mentor. Please send any corrections, suggestions or newsworthy photos and articles to either Chris Jordan or Shirley Sprague. Thanks for being patient with us.
